

STEPHANIE FIELDS

ASSOCIATE

Stephanie helps entrepreneurs and companies protect their business interests. She handles trademark prosecution, domain name disputes, licensing and consent agreements, contracts, and other business-related matters. She enjoys problem-solving and building long-term relationships with her clients.

Prior to her law career, Stephanie worked in project and program management roles for several Department of Defense (DoD) contractors. She is also a U.S. Navy veteran. During her six years of military service, she graduated with honors from the Joint Cyber Analysis Course (JCAC), qualified as an Enlisted Information Warfare Specialist (EIWS), and was meritoriously advanced to the rate of Cryptologic Technician Networks First Class (CTN1).

Stephanie is a resident of Leesburg, VA and enjoys spending her free time with her husband and their dog.
